Improved Train Service from Tucson

via

EL PASO & SOUTHWESTERN SYSTEM

To Tombstone, Naco, Bisbee, Douglas, El Paso and the East on the following schedule:

Lv. Tucson No. 6.	3:20 A. M.	No. 8	6:20 P. M.
Ar. Tombstone	9:20 A. M.		9:15 P. M.
Ar. Naco	7:25 A. M.		9:30 P. M.
Ar. Bisbee	8:10 A. M.		10:25 P. M.
Ar. Douglas	8:20 A. M.		10:40 P. M.
Ar. El Paso	3:15 P. M.		7:00 A. M.

At El Paso close connections are made with E. P. & S. W. trains for Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, and the East. No. 6 carries a standard sleeping car as far as Douglas. This car is ready for occupancy at 9:00 p. m., thus allowing passengers a full night's rest.

Train No. 8 has a standard electric lighted Pullman sleeping car which runs through to Kansas City. Particular attention is called to the fact that E. P. & S. W. main line trains are now operated to and from Tucson instead of from Benson, and that passengers for points on the E. P. & S. W. via Benson have to lay over at both Benson and Fairbank, while the connections at Tucson with the Southern Pacific Company are very good.

M'BEAN BUYS INTO BOEHMER'S

Popular Druggist Leaves
Central Drug Store to Become Part Owner in Establishment Across the Street

From across the counters of the Bohmer Busy Drug Store, George N. MacBean, for three or four years a member of the Lovett Drug Company, conducting the Central Drug Store, will this morning greet the patrons of the Central avenue and Washington street establishment. MacBean, who during his few years residence in this city, has made so many friends that a city directory does not contain them all, has disposed of his interest in the Central Drug Store and purchased an interest in the Bohmer establishment conducted by the Phoenix Drug company.

It all came about something like this. MacBean and Blue, the big cat at the Central were discussing things in general. "There isn't room for two good men like us in one establishment," remarked Blue casually as he sniffed at a bag of catnip.

"That's true," said MacBean handing out some crump medicine to a horse doctor. "We're friends, but hadn't you better hike across the street?"

"Not I," observed Blue. "I've been here eighteen years, according to Ben Butler and a change wouldn't do at this late date."

Then MacBean went over to Bohmer's and talked it over with E. W. Bangs, who has been making things hum at Bohmer's since he assumed the ownership of that place.

"Two live ones like you and me, should make things just sizzle here," said Bangs who had been reading about MacBean in Jo Connors' book. And then the deal was made through which MacBean today takes charge of the floor and sees that the customers are pleased. This is something MacBean succeeded in doing at the Central Drug Store and he should be able to continue it across the street for he is right in the habit.

CONTRACTORS RUSH WORK ON TWO CANALS

Time Limit on Improvements on Arizona and Grand About Up.

With the approach of the time limit, the contractors on the two improvement jobs on the Arizona and Grand canals are rushing things to get done. It will be impossible to get things cleaned up today, the last day of the twenty-five allowed for turning out the water, but as there is not much need for irrigation service at this time of the year, and because the workmen will in a day or so be ready to allow a short head down the two ditches, no hardship will be worked if the time limit is exceeded a few days.

There are two separate contracts let for the two jobs, one, the widening of the middle division of the Grand, the Water Users' association let to Grant Bros. and the other, installing wasteway structures at Evergreen and Indian Bend on the Arizona was given Herbert J. Mann by the reclamation service. It is the Indian Bend structure that is delaying the work of the government contractor, while the other job is almost complete.

Just think of the great purchasing power of $5.00 these days, when that small amount will pay for a year's subscription to the Arizona Republican, the leading daily of the southwest. Note that our exclusive Sunday edition is included in this offer. Good only during our annual bargain offer now on.

NEW HAT UNDOING OF JOSE RIVERA

He and a Companion Plead Guilty to Highway Robbery.

Because Jose Rivera was wearing a hat which did not fit him and which seemed quite in contrast to the remainder of his attire, suspicion was aroused that he might be one of the two men reported to the police late Thursday night as having robbed S. Gonzales of his hat, shoes and $20. Policeman Valenzuela and Maxwell took Rivera to the police station where they were identified by Gonzales as the men who had held him up and deprived him of his belongings.

Despite the efforts of the officers to locate the missing shoes these were not found and the two men denied any knowledge of their whereabouts. They could not deny the possession of the hat and the identification by Gonzales was so complete that when they were arraigned before Justice Johnstone yesterday they each entered pleas of guilty to highway robbery charges and urged the justice to impose sentence immediately. The superior court will probably have something to do with the case.

BIG CURIO BLANKETS FOR DISTANT POINTS

Winter Tourists Availing Themselves of the Last Best Chance.

There is a large and continuing sale of Navajo blankets at Balke's Big Curio store. They are being sent to all parts of the country, the purchasers at present being mostly winter visitors who are availing themselves of the opportunity before they go away of buying blankets at headquarters.

They have learned that all the blankets at the Big Curio store are genuine and of the best quality and they know by comparison with the prices that they have been asked for blankets in other parts of the country where they have been that they are cheaper at the Big Curio than at any other place.

The money guarantee behind the blankets is an attractive one. They also know that the proprietor is sure of his ground or he would not keep up the standing offer to take the blankets back at any time in the future at the purchase price of it.

In the countrywide distribution of blankets that is being made at the Big Curio store, not only the store and the purchasers are being benefited but the town is being widely advertised.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all druggists.

SULZER ASKED TO CUT BRANDT'S TERM

Mortimer E. Schiff and Foulke E. Brandt.

Another effort is being made to secure freedom for Foulke E. Brandt. Nearly six years ago he was sentenced to a term of 20 years in prison for committing burglary in the home of Mortimer E. Schiff of New York. Brandt pleaded guilty on the understanding that by so doing he would be given a light sentence. Instead, he was given the maximum penalty. He afterward declared that he was innocent of the crime charged. It was his first offense.
